PHASE TWO

Sophia Elanza is a passion project that has been in the works for years. We spent many months contemplating the importance of affordable housing with sustainable benefits before it was actualised into to what it is today. Nestled in the calm surroundings of the upcoming suburb of kochi, we hope to embody a new lifestyle that breaks away from the chaos of the new world. And in recent years, studies have pointed out that more and more people are moving towards a sustainable approach to living, which in turn benefits them and our planet greatly!

Phase two of Sophia Elanza, is the expansion project of the existing eight villas that have already been completed.
